Approved For Release 2001/03/09 2001/03/09 800050060-1

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

OFFICE OF NATIONAL ESTIMATES

14 April 1951

SUBJECT: (NIE-32:)

EFFECT OF THE KOREAN WARD COMMUNIST
E-32:) THE COMMIST MILITARY POSITION AND SINO- CHINA AND SOVIET COURSES OF ACTION IN KOREA
(Revised Draft: Terms of Reference)

175 CAPABILITA

ITS CAPABILITIES
FOR MILITARY OPERATIONS
ELSEWHERE

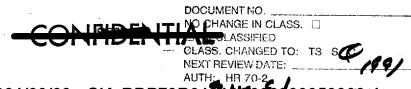

THE PROBLEM

To estimate the effect of the Korean war on the economic and political stability of the Chinese Communist regime and on Chinese Communist capabilities for conducting military operations elsewhere than in Korea.

QUESTIONS BEARING ON THE PROBLEM

I. WHAT HAS BEAN THE EFFECT OF CHINESE COMMUNIST LOSSES IN KOREA TO DATE?

- A. Have they forced a curtailment of operations planned for the Korean campaign?
- B. Have they hampered Chinese Communist capabilities for coping with internal forces hostile to Peiping?

Approved For Release 2001/03/09 : CIA-RDP79R0101240005000500606114

Approved For Release 2001/03/09 : CIA-RDP79R01012A000800050060-1

CONFIDENTIAL

- C. Have they curtailed, cancelled or deferred operations possibly planned against Taiwan, Tibet,
 Indochina, Burma, or Japan?
- D. Have they strained or disrupted the domestic economy of China?
- E. Have they seriously or critically strained Sino-Soviet relations?

II. WOULD CONTINUED CHINESE COMMUNIST MILITARY OPERATIONS IN KOREA ON APPROXIMATELY THE PRESENT SCALE BE LIKELY TO ---

- A. Affect the Chinese Communist problem of coping with hostile internal forces?
- B. Curtail, defer, or cancel operations possibly planned against Taiwan, Tibet, Indochina, Burma, or Japan?
- C. Strain or disrupt the domestic economy of China?
- D. Seriously or critically strain Sino-Soviet relations?